WESTWOOD, LANCASTER

There are houses that simply provide space—and then there are homes like Westwood, which offer a setting for a lifetime of family memories. This is a home where childhoods unfold, celebrations fill the rooms, and everyday life feels just that little bit more special.

Set back behind a deep, mature front garden and located within the sought-after Cannon Hill Conservation Area, Westwood enjoys a rare sense of privacy and calm for such a central position. It feels sheltered and peaceful, yet everything Lancaster has to offer is within easy walking distance. The railway station, city centre, shops and amenities are all close at hand, as are excellent local schools, including Lancaster Girls' Grammar School and Lancaster Royal Grammar School.

For families, it's a location that truly supports modern life. Children can walk to school and into town, and as they grow older the nearby station—with direct services to Manchester, London Euston and Edinburgh—offers independence and opportunity.
